AT JOLIET ARSENAL

Add Information on Facilities for Lease

The Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, recently announced that idle industrial facilities at Joliet Arsenal Ordnance Plant were available for lease for commercial pur-

Additional details on the facilities available for lease at Joliet Arsenal Ordnance Plant have been made public by

Col. S. W. Parnelle Jr., commanding officer, as a result and storage of nitric acid; of numerous questions asked blending and pelleting of by residents of nearby communities.

Col. Parnelle made clear that the facilities that are now being utilized in opera-Joliet Arsenal.

"Only those facilities which are not being used at the available for lease," Col. Par- then publicly opened. nelle explained.

Facilities available lease at the Joliet Arsenal, lease include land and buildequipment tetryl; production of trinitrololuene; and dinitrololuene; bisulfite: lead ozide: putty; power houses; toluene stortions are not being offered age; pump houses; offices; for lease. Operations continue warehouses; and many other at the Elwood Unit of the facilities. Proposals for lease will be received by the U. S. Army Engineer District, Chipresent time have been made cago, until Jan. 15, 1959, and Joliet Arsenal, Elwood Unit, for idle facilities available for -Kankakee Unit, which is ings, machinery and equipoperated by the United States ment for artillery ammuni-Rubber Co., for the Ordnance tion fuze and booster assem-Corps consists of the follow-bly and storage; administraing idle facilities: Land and tion building. Proposals for production U. S. Army Engineer District, then publicly opened.

buildings; machinery and lease will be received by the Chicago, until Jan. 15, and

"The availability for lease of idle facilities is expected to have no immediate effect on contractor and Joliet Arsenal employment at the Joliet Arsenal," Col. Parnelle said. At present, the contractor employs 475 and the Joliet Arsenal 1,160.

The Kankakee Unit of the Joliet Arsenal is in limited operation and being maintained by the United States Rubber Co. for the Army Ordnance Corps.

He added that the idle facilities at Joliet Arsenal have been made available for lease as a part of the Army's economy program.

Detailed information, invitations for proposals, and sample form of lease may be obtained from the U.S. Army District Engineer at Chicago.